Art Unit: 3611

1. Claims 20, 34 and 42 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

These claims only recite that the electronic device is an audio device. The examiner notes that the electronic device is not part of the claimed invention. Instead, the electronic device is merely an element of intended use, which is functionally recited in the preamble of the independent claims.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 39-45 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 39, line 3, "the motorcycle" lacks antecedent basis.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 17, 18, 20, 21 and 22 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Murayama.

Murayama teaches a system having the structure as broadly claimed. As shown in fig. 8, the system includes a first bracket 24, a second bracket 53, a tail 54 and an aperture 241. As shown in fig. 8, the brackets are disengaged by rotation of the second bracket about a line of contact. The cowl 1 is considered to comprise a spacer as broadly claimed.

6. Claims 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 33-37, 39-43 and 45 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Willey '965.

Willey teaches a system having the structure as broadly claimed. As shown in figs. 1 and 2, the system includes a first bracket 58/60, a second bracket 88, a spacer 56, and a riser (the part of the fork tubes that are below the spacer 56).

7. Claims 17, 18, 20, 22 and 23 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Stanberry.

Stanberry teaches a system having the structure as broadly claimed. The system includes a first bracket 2, a second bracket (including rotatable screw 48, fig. 6A), a spacer 40, and a riser 44. The first bracket 2 includes an aperture having a grommet 36, and the second bracket includes a tail portion 22 passing through the aperture.

8. Claim 38 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. Claim 44 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

10. Applicant's arguments filed 11/8/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the applied references do not teach a mounting system that includes a first bracket that is "connectable" to at least one of the upper and lower portion of a motorcycle riser. The examiner does not agree and notes that the term "connectable" is extremely broad. This term is merely functional, and only requires that the first bracket is capable of being connected to a motorcycle. Clearly, the devices taught by the applied references are capable of being connected to a motorcycle as claimed.

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., the spacer (i.e. cowl 1 of Murayama) being connected to a riser) are not recited in the rejected claim(s).

~~Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification~~ are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
